KOREAN LANGUAGE PROGRAM

Admissions Guide

대전보건대학교
DAEJEON HEALTH UNIVERSITY

✦ Introduction to the Korean Language Program

The Korean Language Program at Daejeon Health University provides level-based Korean language education for international students. Through systematic Korean language instruction, the program aims to improve students' Korean communication and academic skills and help them develop the language proficiency necessary for university studies and daily life in Korea.

✦ Regular Korean Language Program

The Regular Korean Language Program is designed to improve international students' Korean communication skills. The program provides systematic instruction in the four language skills—speaking, listening, reading, and writing—so that students can effectively use Korean in real-life communication.
