I. Introduction to UJN

University of Jinan is a key and comprehensive university in Shandong Province and is also entitled a distinctive institution of higher learning which is committed to producing applied-talented students. It offers bachelor's, master's and doctoral degree programs and enjoys the right to recommend postgraduates exempting admission examinations.

Originally, the Shandong Institute of Building Materials was founded in August of 1948. It used to be one of four institutions of higher learning administered by the former National Ministry of Construction Material and Industry. Since July of 1998, it has been under the jurisdiction of the Shandong Provincial Government. The original Jinan Union University was combined with two colleges. One was Jinan Normal College founded in 1978 and the other one was Jinan Vocational College founded in 1983. Then in October of 2000 Jinan Union University was added. In April of 2001, the Jinan School of Civil Affairs and the Shandong School of Materials and Supplies were incorporated. Finally, in December of 2007, master's degree programs in the Shandong Academy of Medical Sciences were incorporated.

Since its foundation, the University of Jinan has adhered firmly to its motto of "Magnanimity and Perseverance, Erudition, and Pursuit of Truth and Excellence" and its educational philosophy of "Diligence, Rigorousness, Unity, and Creativity". In addition, the University of Jinan carries forward the spirit of "being industrious, keeping pace with the times, and pursuing excellence". Nowadays, University of Jinan has become an important base of talent training for local and regional economic development, and more than 170,000 students have graduated from the University of Jinan.

The University of Jinan has always attached great importance to strengthening specialties and disciplines. There are 47 key disciplines and research bases at the national or provincial level. In addition, there is one key national laboratory managed by the Shandong Provincial Government and one engineering research center under the Chinese Ministry of Education. Further, there are 13 key provincial discipline bases, 11 key provincial level laboratories, 4 key laboratories funded by the Shandong "Twelfth-Five-Year Plan", 7 social science research bases approved by the Shandong Provincial Government, and 10 provincial-level engineering research centers.

The University of Jinan emphasizes teaching quality. The University has established 4 national-level distinctive specialties, 5 national-level quality courses, 2 national-level exemplary bi-lingual courses, one national-level quality public audio and video courses, 3 specialties training for Outstanding Engineers, 14 provincial-level distinct specialties, 9 specialties jointly supported by the school and enterprise, 38 provincial-level top-grade courses and 5 provincial-level experimental teaching centers. Over the past 5 years, the faculties have undertaken 6 national teaching and research projects and 45 provincial projects, published 3 textbooks guided by China's "Eleventh-Five-year Plan", and won 2 national "Teaching Achievements" awards and 45 provincial "Teaching and Research Achievements" awards. In addition, the University has successively won a wide variety of honors for innovation and creativity, such as the "Challenge Cup" Extracurricular and Academic Contest, and China Undergraduate Mathematical Contest in Modeling. The students have won 1268 provincial or national awards, of which 20 are first prizes and 81 are second prizes at the national level. The faculties have been awarded the "Chinese Youth Science and Technology Innovation Prize" for two consecutive years.

The University of Jinan has promoted policies of opening-up and internationalization. The university has been actively developing relationships with foreign counterparts by means of visiting scholar programs, academic exchange, and international cooperation and exchange programs and agreements. Up to now, University of Jinan has established international cooperative relationships with 50 foreign counterparts. The universities and institutions are in countries including the U.S., U.K., Germany, France, Canada, Australia, Russia, Japan, South Korea, New Zealand, and etc. About 170 well-known international scholars have been engaged as guest professors. In addition, a Confucius Institute has been built up in the Republic of Congo in Africa.

In recent years, through concerted efforts and hard work of faculty members, University of Jinan has been developing rapidly. The all-round strengths, core competitiveness in the University are greatly improved and the social influence is tremendously increased in the society. Meanwhile, University of Jinan has set up medium and long-term educational objectives to strive for a top-level institution of higher learning, a distinctive university that is comprehensive, open and international.

At present, Prof. & Dr. Cheng Xin serves as President of University of Jinan. Prof. & Dr. Xie Lixin, academician of Chinese Academy of Engineering, is Director of Academic Committee of University of Jinan.
